"Jesus does not separate from us, but has opened the way for us, anticipating our final destination; the encounter with God the Father, in whose heart there is a place for each one of us. So, when we experience fatigue, bewilderment and even failure, let us remember where our life is headed. We must not lose sight of the destination, even if we run the risk of overlooking it, of forgetting the final questions, the important ones: where am I going? Where am I walking towards? What is it worth living for? Without these questions, we compress our life into the present, we think we must enjoy it as much as possible and end up living day by day, without purpose, without a goal. Our homeland, instead, is in heaven (Phil 3:20); let us not forget the greatness and the beauty of our detination! Pope Francis

POPE'S HEALTH: "Our prayers for our Pope are important because he is the successor of St Peter. In an unbroken succession, we can trace back his apostolic authority, back to the Apostle Peter and to Christ, who commissioned Peter, just as he commissions each pope... Our Holy Father is an important link for us in faith. He represents the Lord for us, and he is a source of our unity. He is, as it were, a global father to the Church – not just a Holy Father, but a global father. He's the Father of all peoples. In a particular way, he's the father of every Catholic." (Archbp. John Wilson)
