“The inspiration of faith can open up a horizon of witness that counters the most common prejudices, a horizon that is precious for the entire human community. I invite you to rediscover the book of Ruth! Especially in the meditation on love and in catechesis on the family. This short book also contains valuable teaching on the alliance of the generations: where youth reveals itself to be capable of restoring enthusiasm to mature age – this is essential: when youth restores enthusiasm to the elderly – and where old age discovers it is capable of reopening the future to wounded youth.” Pope Francis

REV. DONATUS CHUKWUEDO: Rev. Fr. Don, has been appointed the Priest-in-Charge of Ammanford & Llandeilo. He will take charge on the second weekend of September. Hearty Congratulations to Fr. Don. Our prayers and good wishes will definitely assist him in his new role. Let us pray that God’s blessing and guidance be always there for him as he embraces his new responsibility.

POPE FRANCIS: SECOND PART OF “LAUDATO SI”: Speaking off-the-cuff to a delegation of lawyers from member countries of the Council of Europe, Pope Francis said he was writing a second part of his Laudato si’ encyclical to update it to “current issues”. He was expressing his appreciation for the attorneys’ commitment to developing a legal framework aimed at protecting the environment. “We must never forget that the younger generations have the right to receive a beautiful and livable world from us, and that this implies that we have a grave responsibility towards creation which we have received from the generous hands of God,” said the Pope. The new updated version of Laudato si’ will focus in particular on the most recent extreme weather events and catastrophes affecting people across five continents. Laudato si’ is Pope Francis’ second encyclical letter. It was published on 18 June 2015, and bears the date 24 May of the same year, the Solemnity of Pentecost.

POPE ENTRUSTS PRAYERS FOR PEACE TO MARY ASSUMED INTO HEAVEN: Pope Francis, following the Angelus on the feast of the Assumption, said, “We entrust to Mary, Assumed into Heaven, our supplication for peace in Ukraine and in all regions.” He lamented that there are so many areas of the world afflicted by war, and said, “But let us not be discouraged,” the Pope said. “Let us continue to hope and pray, for it is God, it is He who guides history, who hears us.”
